

Insurance Advisor (Life)

Ikano Insurance Advisory, Luxembourg

Ikano Insurance Advisory SA (IIA) is part of Ikano Group, an international business with activities in insurance, production, real estate, data analytics, and retail. We support clients within the IKEA Franchise system, guided by our values of togetherness, curiosity, and a long-term perspective. Our mission is to simplify life for our clients and create opportunities for growth—for our people and our business.

We are looking for an Insurance Advisor (Life) who is eager to learn, grow, and make an impact. You will start by supporting and learning from our Senior Insurance Advisor (Life), with a clear path to advance into a senior role within three to five years. This is a unique chance to work closely with experienced professionals, gain invaluable client management experience, and develop your expertise in the insurance sector.

Help us simplify life for our clients

As Insurance Advisor of Ikano Insurance Advisory, you will deliver expert advice, build strong relationships and grow into a senior role within a dynamic and international team.

This will, among other things, involve:

- Deliver excellent advice to clients on pricing and benefits design for life, disability, medical and accident covers.
- Assess insurer quotations and steer the renewal process together with insurers and clients, ensuring complete administrative follow-up.
- Support local RFP/tender processes and produce insurance analyses and statistics.
- Provide advice on claims matters when required and maintain strong relationships with clients, insurers and brokers—ensuring expert help and support throughout.
- Review contracts and agreements for insurance requirements and provide ongoing liaison, advice and recommendations on all insurance matters.
- Contribute to financial reporting and support non-life activities according to business needs.
- Represent Ikano's values and culture in all interactions

We offer you

This position is more than what meets the eye. You will get the chance to influence your daily work. All as part of a caring and open culture where we live our values, work hard, have fun and operate with a long-term perspective – because here opportunities arise and growth follows.

You will work in a small, efficient, and competent team servicing one of the most dynamic and innovative multinational brands – IKEA. You will collaborate with experienced colleagues, take on varied responsibilities across life and non-life insurance. Further development of our co-workers is embedded in our company philosophy.

Are you the one for Ikano?

You are the one for Ikano if you combine strong analytical skills, a proactive and service-minded approach and proven experience in employee benefits and accident insurance.

To efficiently take on this position, we believe you need:

- A University degree or similar education in insurance or other relevant area
- At least 3 years' experience within Employee benefits (Life, Disability, Medical) and accident insurances
- Competence in insurance-related finance and accounting
- Good communication skills with a strong teamwork and service minded approach.
- Fluency in English (spoken and written), any other language is an asset
- Good computer skills, including proficiency in MS Excel
- Willingness to travel if required
